WHAT IS THE GREAT LABOR ARTS EXCHANGE?

We can change the social dialogue around unions!—L. McGowan

Every year, for over 35 years, union and community activists have come together to strengthen the labor and social justice movements in an energizing blast of creativity and solidarity! The dress and the atmosphere are informal—we come to work hard and play hard. You get to choose from a veritable buffet of workshops that teach, uplift, train, explore and produce creative expression.

Everyone is welcome: rank and filers, organizers, cultural workers, artists, labor educators, and youth who want to "carry it on" in peace, in love, in art, poetry and song!

I really enjoyed talking with all of the wonderful people who played and performed here. There are a lot of amazing people who attend this program and I hope more will come in the future. —2013 Participant Evaluation
