

Application Form for the John Handcox Scholarship

The John L. Handcox Scholarship Fund encourages the promotion of a movement that is multi-ethnic, multi-racial, and provides for a diversity of activities by providing opportunities for organizers, artists, and activists of color to participate in the labor movement via The Great Labor Arts Exchange.

Donations to the John Handcox Scholarship Fund are greatly appreciated.*

Great Labor Arts Exchange (June 20-22, 2014)

Name: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Race/Ethnicity: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Union Affiliations/Membership, if Any: _____

Other Organizations You Belong to: _____

1. List any activist experiences, internships, elected positions or jobs you have held with a labor union or affiliated organization:

2. Tell us briefly about any cultural work you have created or been a part of that was used in any union or other organizing campaign, or seen used in an organizing effort:

3. Why do you want to attend this conference, and what do you expect to gain from attending?

4. Tell us in a brief written statement (300-500 words maximum) what you think about any of the following: the importance of creative organizing, the use of arts and culture in furthering progressive movements (including labor, civil rights, equality, and justice), the roles that people of color can play in the movements, and/or your commitment to progressive causes. You can find more info about the Labor Heritage Foundation at the website www.laborheritage.org and feel free to add in any observations if you like.

You may submit your answers on this application form or attach them as a Word document. No limits as to length of response except for #4.

Applications should be e-mailed to info@laborheritage.org or sent regular mail to:

*Labor Heritage
815 16th, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006*

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT of applications is Friday, May 10, 2014 for the Great Labor Arts Exchange.

Any questions? E-mail: ExecDir@laborheritage.org